

HOUSTON DJ + PRODUCER

ELECTRONIC PRESS KIT • 2026

Pharax is a Venezuelan-born, Houston-based DJ and producer. His sets and productions move through different styles of house, drawing from Latin and tribal rhythms as well as darker club sounds — groove stays central, shaped by rolling percussion, high-energy builds, and bouncy, funk-driven hooks. As a producer he releases original house records and arms every set with custom and unreleased club edits, making each performance a focused, high-impact musical journey.
