PHARAX

HOUSTON DJ + PRODUCER

ELECTRONIC PRESS KIT · 2026

Pharax is a Venezuelan-born, Houston-based DJ and producer. His sets and productions move through different styles of house, drawing from Latin and tribal rhythms as well as darker club sounds. Groove stays central, shaped by rolling percussion, high-energy builds, and bouncy, funk-driven hooks. As a producer he releases original house records and arms every set with custom and unreleased club edits, making each performance a focused, high-impact musical journey.
